

WORDS FROM THE PASTOR

It feels like it's not enough. Not enough time as some work in overwhelmed hospitals with anxiety and fear. Not enough support as we take care of generations of family with frustration. Not enough content as we are restlessly contained in quarantine and forced to consume endless media. It's not enough.

Yesterday I took a step away from endless meetings, conversations and videos; and I took a shower. In the quietness, I started to notice how empty I felt. I have been doing so much, with much more to do. So why do I feel so empty? I realized that I had once again put my value in what I do. Inside was this haunting fear: "you are not enough." And to prove myself, I had to do and do more.

Are we not enough? In a way, yes. We are too small to solve the world's problems, and too small to satisfy God. That's why Jesus is good news. Jesus was enough for the Father; enough to take away the world's sins and the ways we fall short, so that the Father would look on us anew with satisfaction and approval. "You are not enough," but in Jesus, we are enough! So is our response to "do and do more"? No. The message of the gospel is not "do more" but "It is done." It is done in Jesus. My value rests in what Jesus has done for me, and now, I can respond not out of emptiness, but with satisfied love.

That was a good shower. As we approach Good Friday and Easter, I pray you would also reflect on what Jesus has done for you.
