

WORDS FROM MEMBER

Easter this year was so unique. We all stayed at home because of the pandemic and couldn't worship at church together. Some church leaders in NYC started a movement to encourage Christians to sing hymn at their homes on Easter morning. Pastor Kevin brought this challenge to CCBC, and I responded!

Easter morning at 9AM, like many other Christians in NYC, I stepped out to the balcony of my house, ready to sing "Christ Is Risen" to the street. I looked around, but didn't see anyone else at other windows or balconies. David played the music with a laptop, I sang the hymn praising God from my heart. There were not many pedestrians. The few there paused and looked at me in amazement, then walked away. I didn't care what they thought, I just did my part praising God together with my brothers and sisters in NYC. It didn't matter if people saw. What mattered was that God saw it! I was sure God was pleased to see His children remembered and celebrated the resurrection of Jesus Christ, completing the salvation plan. After the singing, I was full of joy knowing I was part of this historical event. I also reminded myself that in my future service, I should just focus on God and not man, doing things only to please Him. Halleluiah, Praise the Lord!
